

Acting IV

The following learning targets represent the major concepts studied and assessed in this course.

Semester Class

Establishing a Positive Performance Space

- Develop and practice exercises in relaxation, focus, trust, and playfulness
- Develop and practice the art of being a positive audience member
- Develop and practice the art of tactful criticism

Rehearsal Process

- Develop and rehearse blocking for class performance, one-act
- Rehearse, reflect, and adjust blocking, character choices, and ensemble work for class performance

Passion Project

- Develop and present passion project of student's choosing
- Reflect and analyze peers' projects and own.

Passion Performances

- Implement auditions for Passion Performances
- Develop blocking and performance elements of Passion Project
- Present performance to relevant audiences.