

Business Law

The following learning targets represents the major concepts studied and assessed in this course.

Semester Class

Foundations of law

- Define law as it relates to a person's rights and responsibilities
- Describe the relationship between historical law and today's law.
- Describe the relationship between historical law and today's law.

Contract Law

- Explain the nature, form and importance of a contract
- Define legality and identify situations that would compromise the legality of the contract
- List the six elements of a valid contract

Employment Law

- Students will learn about rights as an employee and employer.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the nature of the employer-employee relationship
- Demonstrate an understanding of the nature of an agency relationship and list the ways agency relationships may be created

Consumer Law

- Students will learn about their rights and responsibilities as consumers.
- Identify rights and responsibilities of consumers e.g. false advertising, telemarketing, product liability, etc.
- Describe laws and agencies that provide consumer protection