

World History

The following learning targets represent the major concepts studied and assessed in this course.

Semester 1

Unit 1

Geography

- I can identify geographical features.
- I can explain the impact of geographical features on human societies.

Unit 2

Belief Systems

- I can identify and define the different types of belief systems.
- I can explain how different types of belief systems impact individuals and societies.

Unit 3

Government

- I can define and identify different types of governments.
- I can explain how different types of governments impact individuals and societies.

Unit 4

Conflict

- I can explain how differing interests can lead to conflict.
- I can examine people's varying perspectives which influence the documents they create.

Semester 2

Unit 5

Economics and Technology

- I can identify different types of economies.
- I can explain how economics impacts how people get resources.

Unit 6

Revolution

- I can identify factors that can contribute to revolutionary movements.
- I can explain how revolutions have succeeded or failed in bringing change.

Unit 7

Social Hierarchy

- I can explain the basic concepts of social hierarchy.
- I can explain how social hierarchies structure and challenge civilizations and the people who live there.